DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- I. Claims 1-68 and 99-107 (in part), drawn to a method of preparing the diol of formula (II), classified in class 568, subclass various.
- II. Claims 1-68 and 99-107 (in part), drawn to a method of preparing a acylated diol of formula (IV), classified in class 560, subclass various.
- III. Claims 69-83 and 108-110, drawn to a compound of formula (IV), classified in class 560, subclass various.
- IV. Claims 84-87 (in part), drawn to a method of isolating and purifying a compound of formula (IV), classified in class 560, subclass various.
- V. Claims 84-87 (in part), drawn to a method of isolating and purifying a compound of formula (II), classified in class 568, subclass various.

- VI. Claims 88-91 (in part), drawn to a method of isolating and purifying an acyl derivative of compound of formula (IV), classified in class 560, subclass various.
- VII. Claims 88-91 (in part), drawn to a method of isolating and purifying an acyl derivative of compound of formula (II), classified in class 568, subclass various.
- VIII. Claims 92-98, drawn to a process for the preparation of escitalopram with the formula (I), classified in class 546, subclass various.

The inventions listed in Groups 1-9 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Claim 69 clearly lacks a special technical feature being anticipated or obvious over the reference of Rock, M. et al. (WO 00/12044), and Chemical Abstract 2000:161091, 2000, Rock, M. et al. which teaches the following compound:

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

1. Compounds, and/or the method of preparing compounds, and/or the method for the isolation and purification of compounds of Formula (II), (IIr) and (IIIs).
2. Compounds, and/or the method of preparing compounds, and/or the method for the isolation and purification of compounds of Formula (IV), (IVr) and (IVs).
3. Acylating agents of Formula (IIIa), (IIIb) and (IIIc).
4. Hydrolase enzyme

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a). The following claim(s) are generic: claim 1, 69, 84, 88, 92 and 95.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Clearly claim 69 lacks a special technical feature for the reason already mentioned. The species are patentably distinct because prior art anticipating and/or rendering obvious one species would not necessarily anticipate and/or render obvious the other species.

Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action.

Due to the complexity of the art a telephone call was not made to the attorney. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
